

“Transforming lives positively through lasting relationships”

Research Analyst

Principal Responsibilities:

The incumbent will be responsible for providing support to the Senior Research & Special Projects Manager by preparing timely analysis and accurate reports on the outlook of the Jamaican Economy, other market information and the performance of listed companies and bonds.

Key responsibilities will include:

- Conducting valuations and provide recommendations on publicly listed companies
- Circulating information on bonds held in the proprietary account
- Preparing bond recommendations
- Preparing reviews of the Government Operations Results
- Making recommendations on CI Managed Funds

Qualifications, Experience & Competencies:

- A first degree in Economics, Finance, Accounts or Management Studies.
- CFA certification (considered an asset)
- A minimum 2 years' experience in similar position within the financial services industry.
- Proven experience in research methods and applications with a good understanding of the Financial Institutions Act, Securities and other relevant Acts.
- Knowledge of local and regional regulations and guidelines.
- Ability to analyse data in a concise and effective manner
- Good problem solving and organization skills
- Strong oral and written communication skills with emphasis on interpersonal skills.
- Strong project management skills
- A strong team-player
- Ability to demonstrate tact, confidentiality and professionalism in the execution of duties.
- Flexibility to travel locally, regionally and internationally as required to carry out duties/responsibilities.

Email: resumes@mayberryinv.com

Subject Line: RESEARCH ANALYST

no later than May 25, 2017

“We thank all applicants, however only short listed candidates will be contacted”