INTRODUCTION

The Board of Directors (“the Board”) of Mayberry Group Ltd. and its Subsidiaries (“the Group” or “Company”) has adopted these corporate governance guidelines (the “Guidelines”) to promote the effective functioning of the Board and its committees, to promote the interests of shareholders, to promote the highest standards of ethical behavior, and to ensure a common set of expectations as to how the Board, its various committees, individual Directors and management should perform their functions.

To serve the interests of shareholders and other stakeholders, The Group’s corporate governance guidelines are reviewed every two (2) years, in the context of changing regulation and emerging best practices with a view of enhancing the Group’s governance.

The Corporate Governance Policy as set out herein, is applicable to the ultimate parent company, Mayberry Group Ltd. and each subsidiary in the Group and separately governs each Board that will have oversight responsibility for the Board Sub-Committees of each entity. This policy is posted on the Mayberry website: www.mayberryinv.com. The corporate structure of the Group is shown below.

CORPORATE STRUCTURE OF MAYBERRY GROUP OF COMPANIES

The ordinary shares of both Mayberry Group Ltd. and Mayberry Jamaican Equities Limited are listed on the Jamaica Stock Exchange. Mayberry Investments Limited is the principal operating subsidiary of the Mayberry Group of Companies and is regulated by the Financial Services Commission in respect of its securities business and by the Bank of Jamaica in respect of its cambio business.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

“Blackout Periods” is defined as a period during which the individuals identified below cannot trade in publicly listed company shares of Mayberry Group Ltd. and Mayberry Jamaican Equities Ltd. These periods occur as shown below in our trading calendar and change based on the calendar year and dates when reports are released.

“Securities” are defined as financial instruments that hold value and can be traded between parties.

“Trading” means:

- Applying for, acquiring, or disposing of the securities or entering into an agreement to do so
- Procuring someone else to trade in those securities or to enter into an agreement to do so
- Communicating (directly or indirectly) the information to another person if you know or ought reasonably to know that the other person would or would be likely to trade the securities or to procure someone else to do so

The persons to whom this policy applies are as set out below:

- All Directors and employees of the company
- Spouses of Directors and employees of the company
- Directors and employees' children under eighteen (18) years
- Individuals to whom Directors and employees have controlling interest over their accounts or estate.
- Trustees of a trust of which Directors or employees are beneficiaries.

This policy applies to trading by any of the above persons on their own behalf, as agent for someone else or through third parties.

- An “Executive Director” is a Director who is employed to the organization, and who is normally responsible for aspects of the entity’s day to day operations and reports to the Board of Directors.
- A “Non-Executive Director” is a Director who is not part of the day-to-day management of the Company.
- An “Independent Non-Executive Director” is a Director who is not part of the current management in the Company, who is free of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect his or her capacity to bring independent judgment to bear on issues and to act in the best interest of MIL and its shareholders and other stakeholders generally.
- A “Lead Independent Director” is a Director nominated by the Board of Directors to provide a sounding board for the Chairman and to serve as an intermediary for the other Directors when necessary, as well as to be available to stakeholders in instances where they have a concern and where contact through the normal channels of Chairman, CEO or other Director has failed to resolve the concern, or where such contact is inappropriate.
- An “Independent Director” is a Director who:
 - Is not a substantial shareholder (10%) of the Company or a controlling person of a non-listed financial institution (or member of a group of individuals and/or entities that collectively exercise control over the financial institution), or otherwise associated directly or indirectly with a substantial shareholder or controlling person of a financial institution.
 - Is not connected to a company that provides material advice or consultancy to the financial institution or its connected or related parties. The nature of the advice or consultancy provided is not considered material if it does not impact the critical operations of the financial institution.
 - Is not involved in any material business arrangement with the financial institution. Business arrangements are not considered material and are not likely to jeopardize the Director’s judgment and thereby his /her independence if:
 - 1) The arrangements are usually and customarily offered to clients of the company,
 - 2) The arrangements are offered on substantially similar terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other clients under similar circumstances;
 - Is not a member of the immediate family of an individual who is, or has been during the past two years employed by the company,
 - Is not, nor in the past two years has been affiliated with or employed by a present or former auditor of the company, or any of the auditor’s connected or related parties.
- Affected person – means any Director or officer that is referred to below:

The requirements in this JSE Rule Book Model Code apply to the following categories of dealings:-

- (a) dealings in the securities of a listed company by the following categories of persons:-
 - (i) a Director of the listed company; and
 - (ii) an officer of the listed company; and
- (b) dealings in the securities of other listed companies by the following categories of persons:-
 - (i) a Director of a listed company; and
 - (ii) an officer of a listed company, when by virtue of his position as such Director or officer, he is in possession of price-sensitive information in relation to such securities.

- Affected company - means a listed company on whose Board the Director sits or to which the senior executive is employed.
- Connected Persons

 - c. The Directors'/senior manager's partners
 - d. Bodies corporate of which the Director/senior manager and/or persons connected with him together have control.
- Control
Control of a corporation is the holding of shares which carry 50% or more of the voting rights in the corporation.

BOARD STRUCTURE AND COMPOSITION

Board Role and Function

The primary role of the Board of Directors is to provide oversight and effective leadership of the Company's affairs for the benefit of its shareholders and its stakeholders, including its customers, team members, suppliers, regulators and the local community. In this context, the Board shall provide guidance and support to a competent Executive team in ensuring the safe and sound operation of the organization. The Board shall therefore ensure that the Executive Team is suitably qualified and properly structured to carry out their responsibilities. In that regard, the Board shall ensure that:

- Fit and proper assessments are conducted for all proposed executives, consistent with the provisions of the Financial Services Commission and the Jamaica Stock Exchange Rule 414. The Board shall retain the power to remove any member of the executive leadership team where such individuals have not been deemed "fit and proper". When such action is taken, the Board of Directors is required to immediately notify the Financial Services Commission of Jamaica, Jamaica Stock Exchange and the Bank of Jamaica of not only the action taken but also the reasons for doing so. Further, managers shall be required to provide adequate notice of resignation in writing and in strict accordance with the company's policies.
- The Supervisory Authority shall be promptly advised of all proposed appointments of Executive Managers, and also be advised of all resignations and dismissals, with details of the reasons for such actions where regulations expressly state a requirement for this to disclose.
- Appropriate succession systems are in place to identify measure and monitor gaps in roles critical to the continuity of business operations.

Decisions taken by the Board must be informed by reasonable and balanced assessments of all relevant information. In all actions taken by the Board, the Directors are expected to exercise independent thinking and sound business judgment in what they reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the Company. In exercising this obligation, Directors may rely on the honesty and integrity of the Company's management and its outside advisors and auditors.

Board Composition

The composition and structure of the Company's Board shall be consistent with local and statutory and regulatory requirements as well as best practices. The size and complexity of each entity shall also be considered in determining the composition and structure of the Board.

The following considerations apply:

- a. The Articles of Association of Mayberry Group Limited stipulates that:
Unless otherwise determined by a general meeting, the number of Directors of the company shall not be more than twelve (12) and that the quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors, and unless so shall be four (4).
- b. The Board should have a mix of Independent and Executive Directors, with sufficient number of Independent Directors to ensure that the Board Committees have the required number of Independent Directors.
- c. Collectively, the Board members shall bring a blend of knowledge, competence and experience to be able to fully understand the Company's material activities and associated risks enabling the Board to carry out its functions effectively.
- d. Directors will be nominated provided they meet the criteria set by the Company, in accordance with the relevant regulatory guidelines on Fit and Proper Person Criteria.
- e. Directors' maximum consecutive term will be in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company.
- f. The Board shall establish appropriate Board Sub-Committees to provide advice and support, assuming responsibility for matters that require more detailed and frequent review and thereby directly contributing to the Board's independent oversight function.

Board Leadership Chairperson

The members of the Board shall elect a Chairperson, with good knowledge of financial matters, preferably with experience in the industry at senior level, to provide firm guidance and objective leadership.

The Chairperson should devote sufficient time to enable the Board to diligently discharge its responsibilities. The main responsibilities of the Chairperson shall be to:

- a. Create and maintain an effective working relationship with members of management and the Board
- b. Preside over meetings, encourage participation of Directors in Board matters, mediate differences of opinion and ensure that the agenda is appropriately directed to the matters of greatest importance to the Company.
- c. Participate in the nomination of Directors to ensure that the Board has the right mix of competencies, skills, objectivity and expertise.
- d. Evaluate the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and jointly create a learning and growth plan.
- e. Evaluate the performance of Directors.
- f. Guide the Board and Executives ensuring time for consultation, preparing of agenda and minutes and supervision of implementation of recommendations and resolutions.

- g. Ensure that all relevant information on financial and operating matters is placed before the Board to enable Directors to reach informed decisions.
- h. Ensure adoption of good corporate governance practices.
- i. Maintain relations with the shareholders of the Company and ensure that information is clearly communicated to them through appropriate disclosure.
- j. Ensure all members of the Board are trained annually in AML/CFT

Deputy Chairperson

The main responsibilities of the Deputy Chairperson shall be to support the Chairman in carrying out his/her role.

Executive Directors

The Board shall include a balance of executive and non-executive Directors (and in particular independent non-executive Directors), such that no individual or small group of individuals can dominate the Board's decision taking. The Chief Executive Officer will have responsibility for managing the day-to-day business and operations of the Company.

The inclusion of the Executive Directors will eliminate managerial disassociation from the Board decisions and increase the level of managerial diligence in advising the Board, by making management a critical part of the decision.

Company Secretary

To ensure the smooth functioning of Board and Board Sub Committee meetings, the Board shall appoint a Company Secretary to:

- a. Assist the Chairperson of the Board with the agenda, information gathering and other logistics as it relates to meetings and the Board carrying out its duties.
- b. Manage action items for Board meetings on behalf of the Chairperson to ensure that all open items are addressed and resolved.
- c. Ensure compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements.
- d. Devise orientation and training programmes for the new Directors.

No person shall be appointed or hold office as Secretary who is:

- a. The sole Director of the company; or
- b. A corporation, the sole Director of which is the sole Director of the company; or
- c. The sole Director of a corporation which is the sole Director of the company.

Role of the Executive Team Leaders (ETL)

The Board may delegate functions to the CEO who may in turn delegate to the ETLs of the Company. The primary responsibility of the ETLs is to direct and manage the day-to-day operations of the Company in accordance with the objectives and policies set out by the Board.

Other responsibilities of ETLs/Department Heads include the following:

- a. Execute Board directives, including the implementation of the Company's strategic aims and objectives, ensuring that proper systems are in place for their attainment, monitoring of results and timely reporting to the Board.
- b. Assist the Board in fostering a strong corporate culture that promotes compliance and integrity, as well as good ethical and professional practices.

- c. Ensure that the Company is adequately staffed, and that staff have the requisite skills, experience and integrity to perform assigned functions effectively and efficiently.
- d. Ensure that officers are equipped with the necessary resources and support to effectively execute their duties.
- e. Facilitate the Board's oversight role through the provision of relevant, accurate and timely information to facilitate informed decision making and enable the Board to effectively oversee the management and operations of the organization.
- f. Ensure that there are appropriate and adequate systems established to facilitate the execution efficiency of the Company's operations, which are subject to independent reviews, as well to facilitate accurate and timely reporting to the Board and the Supervisory Authorities.
- g. Take reasonable measures to prevent the organization from being used to facilitate financial crimes. These measures must be in accordance with the relevant laws, such as the Proceeds of Crime Act (POCA) as well as the Guidance Notes issued by the Bank of Jamaica and the Financial Services Commission.
- h. Conduct on-going assessment of the wider staff to ensure they are fit and proper and provide timely advice to the Supervisory Authorities and the Board of any appointment and removal of persons in sensitive roles.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors' mandate is to oversee the company's affairs and to promote high standards of corporate governance within the Company, whilst examining the soundness of the Company's financial policies, business strategies, the effectiveness of its internal controls and risk management framework. The fundamental objective is to ensure transparency, all in an effort to protect shareholders and stakeholders value.

The Directors are expected to exercise their business judgment in what they reasonably believe to be the best interest of the Company. In discharging that obligation, from time to time, the Directors rely on the honesty and integrity of the Company's senior executives, its external advisors and auditors as to matters the Directors reasonably believes are within such person's professional expertise. Other responsibilities of the Board include:

Strategic Planning

The Board of Directors is ultimately responsible for the establishment of the strategic objectives. These should be clearly defined, well documented, and communicated to all team members. In fulfilling these objectives, the Board shall:

- a. Review, challenge and approve strategic options presented to the Board by the ETLs/Department Heads, giving full consideration to the risks involved
- b. Monitor and evaluate the implementation of strategies, adherence to regulatory requirements, policies, and performance measurements
- c. Ensure that appropriate information systems are in place to enable the Company in meeting its operational and strategic goals in the most effective and efficient manner
- d. Ensure that the ETLs/Department Heads have documented policies to ensure that activities are undertaken in accordance with the approved business strategy.
- e. Ensure that the competencies and capacity of the organization are expanding to match the needs of the strategic plan
- f. Ensure that the Company is focused on its agreed strategy and pursues a culture of high performance
- g. The Board shall approve policy formulation and policy decisions. The Board will review the Executive decisions where the decisions are inconsistent with the core values and policies

Risk Management

It is the responsibility of the Board and the ETLs/Department Heads to ensure that an adequate and effective risk management framework is in place for identifying, measuring, controlling and monitoring all material risks to which the Company is exposed. In fulfilling these responsibilities, the Board shall:

- a. Define the risk appetite of the Company while setting the overall tone and direction of the Group through the establishment of sound strategies, values and culture.
- b. Identify and assess key risk areas of the business and ensure measures are taken to mitigate those risks.
- c. Understand the nature and level of risks being taken by the Company or any individual companies within.
- d. Ensure that management is provided with the resources required to adequately manage the material risks to which the Company is exposed.

In keeping with Customer Due diligence measures and to help in controlling risks that the company may be exposed to, an Enhanced Due Diligence framework has been developed and approved by the Board. This framework outlines how the Board of Directors, Compliance and Data Protection Committee and Senior Management of the company will approach enhanced due diligence. The Board of Directors has the ultimate responsibility for determining the strategic direction of the company, including the adoption of the AML/CFT programme.

Other Key Responsibilities

- a) Set the Company's vision, mission and core values.
- b) Ensure that the Company adheres to the core values.

- m) Oversee investments in subsidiaries and associated companies to the benefit of the shareholders.
- n) Approve important capital investments of the Company, including new products and services.
- o) Be flexible and facilitate timely and effective decision making.
- p) Agree on the composition and terms of reference of the Board sub committees and assess routinely whether the Board and its committee are functioning effectively. The Board and its committees, each provided for in their respective charters, shall conduct annual self-evaluations. The Corporate Governance Committee shall lead the evaluations and will report the results of the evaluations to the Board.
- q) Ensure all Directors have access to the advice and services of the Corporate Secretary.
- r) Ensure that Directors, especially non-executive Directors, have access to independent legal,

- financial, governance or other expert advice in the course of discharging their responsibilities.
- s) Ensure ETL's/ Department Heads adopt a written Code of Conduct which clarifies the standards of ethical behaviour required by the Company.
 - t) The policy should specify the relationship between remuneration and performance and include measurable standards that protect long-term interest of the company over short-term considerations.
 - u) Ensure that if any of the following circumstances occur, it is reported to the Regulators:
 - Matters that could materially affect the financial condition and/or reputation of the Company
 - Any significant transactions (including transactions with connected parties) or significant events or circumstances that could affect the viability of the Company
 - Any fraud or criminal act believed to have been committed by officers and employees of the Company or committed against any Company within the Group, as required by law.
 - v) Ensure that any material fact that indicates that the Group is or is likely to be unable to meet its obligations is reported to the Regulators.
 - w) Ensure that the Regulators are advised of any dismissals or resignations from Executive Management or key positions and to advise of any circumstances that may render any Director, manager or officer unfit for office; and to ensure that the appropriate steps are taken by the Company in response to the situation as required by law.
 - x) Ensure that a person that holds a substantive position within the Company is not liable to another entity as an employee or agent, except in such temporary circumstances as the Regulators authorize.

BOARD OPERATION AND EFFECTIVENESS

Board Meetings

- a) The Group Board shall meet sufficiently regularly to discharge its duties effectively.
- b) Meetings shall be convened by the Chairman as scheduled, or at the request of one or more Directors.
- c) Meetings may be held by telephone or videoconference, provided that participants can hear each other simultaneously.
- d) All open items arising from Board Meetings will be managed by the Company Secretary.
- e) The meeting will be presided by the Chairman or in his absence, the Deputy Chairman.
- f) The quorum shall be four (4) Directors.
- g) Resolutions shall be passed by majority vote.
- h) The minutes of the proceedings of each meeting shall be approved at the following meeting as evidence of the deliberations and decisions taken.
- i) All Directors are expected to attend the annual meeting of stockholders, Board meetings and meetings of the Board committees on which they serve.
- j) The Board should facilitate shareholders questions for the external auditors and ETL's/Department Heads.
- k) Informational materials such as, but not limited to, the agenda, Board minutes and papers, should be forwarded to all Directors at least five (5) working days prior to the meeting to allow the documents to be adequately reviewed.
- l) At Board meetings, the Chairman shall:
 - i. Maintain control of proceedings
 - ii. Stimulate debate by drawing out the contributions of all members
 - iii. Guide discussions while ensuring that genuine disagreements are aired and resolved
 - iv. Ensure decisions reached are properly understood and recorded.
- m) The minutes of each meeting of the Board shall be well documented to provide:

- i. An accurate and adequate record of Board decisions
 - ii. Indication of the members in attendance at each meeting
 - iii. An appropriate record of the material contribution of each member of the Board
 - iv. The minutes of the meetings of the Board, as well as proper records of Board papers/submissions shall be appropriately signed and made available to the Regulators and other appropriate individuals for review upon request as required by law.
- n) Notice for the Annual General Meeting, including date, time, place, agenda and related papers should be sent to shareholders at least twenty-one (21) days before the meeting for special resolutions and otherwise not less than ten (10) business days in writing nor more than fifty (50) days before the meeting.

Proceedings at Annual General Meetings

- a) All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the Directors and auditors, the election of Directors in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.
- b) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, three members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.
- c) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.
- d) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the company, or if there is no such Chairman, or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
- e) If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as Chairman or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their numbers to be Chairman of the meeting.
- f) The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so, direct the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting
- g) At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded -
 - i. by the Chairman; or
 - ii. by at least three members present in person or by proxy; or
 - iii. by any member or members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or in compliance with the companies act and articles.
 - iv. by a member or members holding shares in the company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

- a) Except as provided in regulation 61 if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- b) In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- c) A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. Poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be preceded with pending the taking of the poll.

- c. The Board shall have unrestricted access to all information and records of the business.
- d. Directors should use their judgment to ensure that any such contact is not disruptive to the business operations of the entity.

RECRUITMENT AND APPOINTMENT

Qualifications for Directors

One of the most important responsibilities of the Board is to identify, evaluate and select candidates for the Board. Candidates for nomination or reelection to the Board should possess the following qualifications, among others:

- a. the highest level of personal and professional ethics, integrity and values;
- b. expertise that is useful to the organization and complementary to the background and expertise of the other members of the Board;

a willingness and ability to devote the time necessary to carry out the duties and responsibilities of Board membership; a desire to ensure that the organization's operations and financial reporting are effected in a transparent manner and in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations; and

- c. a dedication to the representation of the best interests of the Organization and all of its shareholders.

The company has a mandate to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in relation to the status of its Directors and is committed to adhering to those guidelines.

Director Education

The Directors shall be knowledgeable and informed about the business of the company and continuing education programs are important components of Board or Audit Committee effectiveness. These programs can help Directors further understand their roles and develop the technical knowledge needed to discharge their responsibilities effectively.

- a. Appointments are made on merit and against objective criteria. Consideration should be given to the existing balance of skills, knowledge and experience on the Board as well as the duration of each Director's tenure so as to maintain effective succession planning.
- b. The Board shall ensure that fit and proper assessments are conducted for proposed members consistent with the process undertaken by the relevant regulatory authorities such as the Regulators.
- c. Formal advice and requisite submissions are provided to the regulatory authorities prior to appointment of proposed Board members to facilitate the authority's conduct of fit and proper assessments in accordance with the relevant regulations.
- d. All Executive and Non-Executive Directors should disclose their external commitments to the Board before appointment with an indication of the time involved. The Directors should inform the Board of any subsequent changes to external commitments including any new Directorships being considered.
- e. Formal letters are to be presented to Directors upon appointment. The letters will set out the key terms and conditions of appointment, the role, capabilities and the responsibilities of the Board as a whole.
- f. The Board, through the Nominations Committee, establishes policies and procedures to govern the appointment to and resignation from the Board. These policies must be established on the principles of transparency, objectivity and independence.

EVALUATION OF THE BOARD

The Board shall conduct an annual self-evaluation of the performance and effectiveness of its members. Results of the self-evaluation are discussed annually in a Board meeting after an independent analysis.

BOARD REMUNERATION

- a. The level of compensation should reflect the time commitment and responsibilities involved and should be appropriate to attract, retain and motivate the Directors.
- b. The remuneration of Directors shall be disclosed in the annual report for transparency purposes.
- c. The form and amount of the compensation is determined by the Board based upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee.

SUCCESSION PLANNING

- a. The Board shall oversee and review succession planning periodically for the Group.
- b. Persons identified in the succession plan shall undergo continuous training to ensure that they are updated on new laws, guidelines, industry developments, emerging trends, products, risks and associated opportunities.

BOARDROOM CONDUCT

- a. Integral to the Board's performance is Board dynamics, which is determined by the attributes, respect, trust and impartiality of members. These qualities directly influence the quality of the Board's decision-making and relationships with key stakeholders.
- b. The interactions between the Directors of the Board and those of the subsidiaries shall reflect high levels of respect, trust and candour.

The desired behaviors include but are not limited to the following:

Respect

- i. Relationships between Directors shall be supportive and respectful
- ii. The Board's relationship with management shall be respectful
- iii. The Directors shall be well-informed and prepared for meetings as demonstrated through in-depth discussions and comprehensive questioning of management reports and presentations
- iv. Directors are encouraged to engage in discussions and their insights and perspectives should be respected by their peers
- v. Directors shall have adequate time to prepare for meetings
- vi. Directors shall challenge each other's views in a constructive manner to facilitate robust debate and well-considered outcomes. This may often include differences of opinion; however, these shall be explored and managed well by the Chairman

Trust

- i. The relationship between the Chairman and the Directors as well as between individual Directors shall be positive, which is fundamental to foster an open and supportive environment in which the Board discusses issues and makes decisions
- ii. Directors shall demonstrate trust, and value each other's opinions by drawing on each other's experience in order to reach a decision

- iii. The Chairman shall effectively manage Board discussions, identifying potential conflict whilst ensuring all agenda items are discussed
- iv. The sharing of relevant information at meetings is encouraged. However, it is important to ensure the time spent sharing knowledge is aligned with the overall purpose of decision-making in light of time constraints.

Honesty

- i. Directors shall communicate openly and encourage one another to engage in robust and positive debates, improving the quality of issue consideration.
- ii. In order to facilitate open discussions, the proceedings and deliberations of the Board and its Committees shall be confidential.
- iii. Each Director shall maintain the confidentiality of information received in connection with his or her service as a Director.
- iv. The Executive team shall communicate bad news to the Board in a timely manner. The Board shall accept and encourage the communication of bad news and shall focus on correcting the issue and preventing occurrences.
- v. Each Director shall build trust by:
 - a. Providing honest, direct feedback
 - b. Only provide feedback and changes where this is adding value to the outcome.
 - c. Regularly reflect on the Board's progress towards agreed behaviour and the Group's vision and overall strategy.
 - d. Regularly reflecting on the values and principles of the Group

BOARD COMMITTEES

Boards can improve their effectiveness and efficiency through the establishment of various subcommittees to provide vital support in the execution of their fiduciary duties and responsibilities. Board sub-committees can handle matters requiring more detailed review or in-depth analysis and may make decisions on behalf of the Board or submit recommendations for its consideration. Certain responsibilities are delegated to Board Committees, which assist the Board in carrying out its functions and ensure that there is independent oversight of internal control and risk management. The Chairman of each Board Committee reports to the Board on the matters discussed at Committee meetings. For a publicly listed company, the Board must establish an Audit Committee.

Purpose

The Corporate Governance Committee is established by the Board to enhance its effectiveness in overseeing matters related to director nomination, corporate governance, and board performance. The purpose of the Committee is to ensure the Board's composition reflects diverse skills and expertise, and to promote and uphold strong corporate governance principles in alignment with the principles of fairness, accountability, responsibility, stewardship, and transparency.

The Code of Conduct delineates the Company's regulations and expectations concerning the proper conduct of business and ethical behaviour for all Directors and officers.

These include:

- i. Adherence to the law in all areas where the Company operates;
- ii. Avoidance of conflicts of interest;
- iii. Conducting themselves with honesty and integrity;
- iv. Upholding confidentiality and safeguarding the integrity and security of assets, communications, information, and transactions; and
- v. Treating all individuals fairly, impartially, and professionally.

The Board has reasonable confidence in the continuous, suitable, and efficient process established for adhering to the Company's Code of Conduct and Ethics policies. Mayberry Group of Companies fosters a robust compliance culture by rigorously upholding the Company's Code of Conduct and Ethics Policies, and by taking firm disciplinary measures when necessary.

Audit Committee

Purpose

- i. The primary purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with regard to the systems of internal controls, the entity's financial reporting processes and audit functions.
- ii. Approve or recommend to the Board for the approval of shareholders, the appointment, compensation and dismissal of external auditors
- iii. Responsible for ensuring that the independence of the internal and external audit function is maintained.
- iv. Manage the Group's operational risks
- v. Ensure the Group maintains proper records and controls
- vi. Monitor and review the effectiveness of the company's internal and external audit function

Where the audit committee's monitoring and review activities reveal cause for concern or scope for improvement, it shall make recommendations to the Board on action needed to address the issue or to make improvements.
